

The proposed 5 MHz band should definitely have subbands for narrow mode emissions (<200 Hz bandwidth) and wideband emissions (>200 Hz bandwidth). High power, aggressive SSB stations make narrow mode (and often low power) communication impossible.